- Shiv Pratap Singh v State of U.P. (2026)
  - Brief Facts of Challenge
    - Two advocates challenging U.P. Gangsters Act prosecutions
    - Proceedings initiated based on 2021 Rules and Gang Charts
  - Key Issues Identified
    - Absence of a statutory offence within the Act
    - Unbridled executive power in status determination
    - Lack of safeguards compared to preventive detention
  - Final Holding and Reasoning
    - Quashing of all impugned proceedings
    - U.P. Act declared as a stillborn statute
    - Unconstitutional delegation via subordinate Rules
    - Trial characterized as a foregone conclusion
    - Constitutionality of the Act left open